

Making the complex simple for your oral solid dose from Freiburg, Germany

Ready to meet your complex OSD needs, seamlessly and simply.

Our state-of-the-art facility in Freiburg is ready to meet your evolving oral solid dose (OSD) needs with simplicity in scale and scope. Powered by Pfizer's global network and proven expertise, we help streamline and accelerate your project's journey to market with reliable, high-quality manufacturing and precision packaging solutions for small and large volumes. Because for patients, time is life.

Capabilities

- Capabilities from late stage clinical to commercial scale manufacturing
- OEB 1-5 containment
- Continuous manufacturing technology
- Portable continuous miniature and modular manufacturing
- Reliable global delivery to more than 185 markets
- Primary and secondary packaging
- One of the world's largest manufacturing and packaging sites, spanning ~ 150,000 m²

Our commitment to sustainability

- ISO 14001 and ISO 50001 certified Energy Management Systems
- 90% renewable energy sources
- A comprehensive energy management system and greener manufacturing processes
- Solar thermal air regeneration for room conditioning in production areas for coating and tablet/capsule inspections

Flexibility to manufacture your dosage form

- Low dose
- Single and dual dosage forms
- Combination products
- Immediate/extended-release

Expertise

- Flexible volume late stage manufacturing
- Leading packaging technologies
- Global delivery to more than 185 markets

1,300

dedicated experts to support you

3,500

SKUs

4.5bn

tablets and capsules manufacturing capacity per year

Ready to make the complex simple for your OSD?

Speak to our experts →