

Delivering excellence in every injection from McPherson, Kansas

Trusted quality, proven expertise for your sterile injectable

From liquid and lyophilization to pre-filled syringes, vials and cartridges; our McPherson site in Kansas USA, is ready to deliver sterile injectable excellence in every injection. Powered by Pfizer’s global network, scientific expertise and unwavering commitment to quality, we provide the confidence you need to take your sterile injectable to the patients waiting.

We leverage our lightspeed principles and decades of experience to help optimize lead-times, meet your evolving expectations and overcome roadblocks your supply chain – because patients are waiting, and time is life.

Capabilities

- Cartridge/Carpject™, vial and pre-filled syringe combination product presentations
- Isolator and RABS aseptic filling
- Biologics and biosimilar fill and finish
- Lyophilization and terminal sterilization
- High-volume and flexible packaging
- Cold chain handling and distribution

Expertise

- 30+ years of experience
- > 1,800 highly qualified professionals
- 83 acre campus
- 1.4m sq. ft of floor space
- 24/7 operations
- 125+ million drug product units produced annually

Technical and quality support

- Analytical and microbiological method development and transfer
- Process development
- Analytical and microbiology capabilities include on-site sterility testing, stability support, controlled drug and OEB support, and more.

Time is life

A network of Pfizer scientists, regulatory experts, and analytical and quality control engineers who help reduce:

- Process scale-up time
- End-to-end process cycle time
- Wait times for manufacturing suite access

Ready to work with a CMO for therapies that define legacies?

Speak to our experts →